

ADI

Lockable Bolt

The ADI 588T lockable bolt to be used on front doors in a commercial situation, roller shutters and is suitable for both hinged and sliding doors.

- either a concealed or front fix bolt
- supplied with a standard 6 pin oval cylinder offering compatibility with security systems
- body is constructed from pressure cast aluminium
- bolt is 13mm thick round stainless steel with a hardened steel insert and has a bolt projection of 35mm

Bloklok

The ADI Bloklok to suit single doors. Versatile lock that is suitable for sliding and swinging doors, shopfronts, factories, warehouses and garages.

- a front pin securing model
- made from pressure cast aluminium
- hardened 13mm locking pin
- supplied with a 6 pin oval cylinder
- completely reversible
- fixed to the door by 8mm cup head bolts
- retains locking pin when unlocked

Double Bloklok

The ADI Bloklok to suit double doors. Versatile locking unit often found on a shop front door for double sliding or double swinging doors.

- made from pressure cast aluminium
- hardened 13mm locking pin
- supplied with a 6 pin oval cylinder
- completely reversible
- fixed to the door by 8mm cup head bolts
- retains locking pin when unlocked

